Christmas Party

Thursday, Dec 29
6:00 PM

Golden Corral in Layton
1624 N Heritage Park Blvd.
(See map on back)

President's

Message

Thanks guys for your work at the show and the fun we had during the year.
We have our new officers for 2006, the Token Hunter will list the new names to positions in Jan. then at the meeting swear them in.
Nice gifts and prizes to be won will be at the Christmas dinner in Layton so come out and enjoy yourselves to finish a great year.
I found some older poetry from a book dated 1925, The Kiddies Christmas Book, The Willis N. Bugbeee Co., maybe you'll get a kick out of these.

Christmas Greetings

By Carolyn R. Freeman

Tell me, people, kind and true,
Oh, what can a fellow do
When he has a lot to say,
And doesn't know the proper way?

If you have been troubled so,
Then I guess perhaps you know
How I feel, because, you see,
That is just the way with me.

I can whistle like a bird,
Greatest songs you ever heard.
But when it comes to speak a piece,
Just excuse me, won't you please?

But there's so much here in my heart,
I must tell you just a part.
So, dear people, kind and true,
A Merry Christmas unto you.

The Other Way Around

By Carolyn R. Freeman

I played a trick on Santa,
Last merry Christmas time.
I bought some lovely chocolates
That tasted simply fine.
I filled them up with pepper,
And left them on the shelf,
Where Santa Claus would see them,
And surely help himself.

Now that was simply horrid
To do to anyone,
But at the time it happened,
I thought 'twas lots of fun.

I'm sorry now I did it,
Because I sadly fear,
That Santa will remember,
And pay me back this year.

Her Christmas Gift

By Carolyn R. Freeman

Last year I asked old Santa
On merry Christmas day,
To bring a baby to our house,
And let him always stay.

So Santa brought one, but I've been
As sorry as could be,
'Cause all that baby ever does
Is cry, and cry, you see.

Of course, I can't have any fun,
And I don't think it's right;
I have to tend him all the while,
From morning until night.

Yes, Santa took me at my word,
And brought a baby brother;
But, deary me, I truly hope
He'll never bring another.

NUTS Christmas Party

December 29, 2005 -- at the Layton Golden Corral -- 6:00 pm

Directions to get there

Coming from Salt Lake, take Exit 332, the Syracuse/Layton Exit (you will see the big Golden Corral sign from the freeway, just before the exit). Turn right onto Antelope Drive, then take the very next right onto Heritage Park Blvd. Go just a quarter mile, and you are there.

Coming from Ogden, take Exit 332, the Syracuse/Layton Exit (the one by the Davis Hospital) Turn left onto Antelope Drive. After you get over the freeway, take the first right onto Heritage Park Blvd. Go just a quarter mile, and you are there.

If you live near Layton or Clearfield, you already know how to get to Golden Corral.

A Delicious Holiday Buffet Bring your favorite friends and family. Children are welcome.

Prizes You cannot buy tickets for this drawing. Everyone who comes to the party will receive at least one ticket. Other tickets will be awarded to those who came to the monthly meetings and to those who helped at the coin show.

The Edith Attebury Award will be presented.

Officer's Awards will be presented

Last Meeting

Bottles Several people brought in some of their favorite bottles.

Ralph Gold brought his whiskey bottle from Delmar. He had it cleaned, and it looks good. He also told of an undisclosed place where he found 500 coins from the 1880's to the 1940's. Sixty of these coins were in a 12 X 12 foot area.

Wayne Erickson brought pop bottles

Karen Secor brought canning jars

Rich Secor brought drug, pop, and whiskey bottles

Phil Lavargna also brought some interesting bottles. He says he is selling off his collection of over 300 books on trains and street cars

Officers for 2006 were elected.

Jolly Old Saint Nicholas

TRADITIONAL

TRADITIONAL

1. Jol-ly old Saint Ni-cho-las, Leanyour ear this way! Don't you tell a
 2. When the clock is striking twelve, When I'm fast a-sleep, Down the chimney
 3. John-ny wants a pair of skates; Su-sy wants a dol-ly; Nel-lie wants a sin-gle soul What I'm going to say; Christmas Eve is com-ing soon;

 broad and black, With your pack you'll creep; All the stock-ings you will find sto-ry book; She thinks dolls are fol-ly; As for me, my lit-tle brain

Now, you dear old man, Whisper what you'll bring to me; Tell me if you can.
 Hang-ing in a row; Mine will be the short-est one, You'll be sure to know.
 Is-n't ver-y bright; Choose for me, old San-ta Claus, What you think is right.

Up On The House-Top

TRADITIONAL

1. Up on the house-top rein-deer pause, Out jumps good old San-ta Claus;
 2. First comes the stocking of lit-tle Nell; Oh, dear San-ta, fill it well;
 3. Next comes the stocking of lit-tle Will; Oh, just see what a glorious fill!

Down thro' the chimney with lots of toys. All for the lit-tle ones, Christmas joys.
 Give her a dol-lie that laughs and cries—One that will open and shut her eyes.
 Here is a ham-mer and lots of tacks, Al- so a ball and a whip that cracks.

CHORUS

Ho, ho, ho! who would-n't go! Ho, ho, ho! who would-n't go!

Up on the house-top, click, click, click, Down thro' the chimney with good Saint Nick.
